New This Week

A special welcome to today's guest, Jodi Jones, founder of The Cultured Leaf, a Shepherdstown-based business that brews Kombucha, a "living, fermented tea". Her goal is to be a positive force in the community by crafting the highest quality raw, living microbrewed Kombucha. She and her team believe in Real SOLE (sustainable, organic, local, ethical) food, good health, great taste, and sustainable business practices. To learn more about The Cultured Leaf, visit www.culturedleaf.com.

Our club will be attending the CATF play, "On Clover Road," by award-winning playwright Steven Dietz, on Sunday, August 2 at 2:00 p.m. in the Frank Center Theater at Shepherd University (Play runs 60 minutes). Buy your tickets for $30 each, which is half price, at the CATF box office, 304-876-3473. Tell the ticket seller that you are a Rotarian to get the discounted price.

The play will be followed by a potluck dinner starting about 4:30 pm at the home of Dolores & Bob Lowe, 39 Watercress Place, Shepherdstown.

Last Week

2015 Board Installation was held on Tuesday, July 14, 2015. New officers were installed by Area 16 Assistant Governor Pam Wagoner. Congratulations to all of our new officers and many thanks to 2014's outgoing officers.

Congratulations to the 2015 Paul Harris Fellow recipients Varun K. Menon, a senior at the University of Pennsylvania, and Syed R. Akhtar, a senior at West Virginia University. The pair are founders of the Arthur Guyton Foundation. To learn more, visit <http://www.guytonfoundation.org>.

Upcoming Events

Joe Rice, Eastern Panhandle Technology Innovation Center Tuesday, July 28, 2015

Joe Rice will discuss the new Eastern Panhandle Technology Innovation Center at American Public University, Charles Town. Mr. Rice is the Director of the Center, a technology incubator, which opened in December 2014. An Adjunct Professor at APU, Mr. Rice is responsible for developing the program and managing all events. His innovative spirit led him to assist entrepreneurs in developing their ideas into startups and businesses. Mr. Rice earned a BS in accounting, and an Master's degree in education.
