New This Week

Meredith Wait, Shenandoah Horse Park & Agricultural Center Tuesday, October 27, 2015

Meredith Wait, founding member of Shenandoah Horse Park & Agricultural Center, will discuss the impact the park will have on equestrian sports, agriculture, land preservation and economic development in Jefferson County, as well as the necessary grassroots support, industry investment and government advocacy to grow SHP&AC from concept to reality. Ms. Wait is the co-owner of Dickinson & Wait Craft Gallery and is past president of the Shepherdstown Business Association and chair of Shepherdstown's 250th Anniversary Celebration.

Last Week

Stephen Morris, President and CEO of JSB, spoke to us about the tenure of his 42-year career in community banking, the success of which he credits to his ability to be a problem solver. In his 42 years, he's spent 31 years as a bank president and 12 years as President of JSB.

Lois Turco presented Dr. Mark Cucuzzella with the 2015 Vocational Service Award.

We welcomed guests Lois Turco, former member; Dr. Ann Legreid, guest of Dr. Charles Nieman; Dr. Mark Cucuzzella; Cindy Kitner, of JSB; and Steve Campbell, guest of Andrew McMillan. Hank Walters won the 50/50 drawing.

Peter Smith thanked Doug Alexander, Jeff and Tessa Bowers, David Manthos, Salle Mickey, Peter Smith, Sandy Sponaugle and Paul Kradel for distributing dictionaries in four local elementary schools, as well as Terry Anderson, Dave Miljour, Carl Moore, Bridget Tinsley and Riley Moore for their efforts.
